Mrs. Baker: Where were you yesterday afternoon, Eva? I called you but you weren't at home.

Eva: I went shopping at Grant's Department Store. I like shopping there. It's a good place for buying women's clothes. I wanted to buy a present for my girlfriend, Maria. Her birthday was yesterday.

Mrs. Baker: What did you buy?

Eva: I bought a red blouse with long sleeves and a pointed collar.

Mrs. Baker: That's a beautiful present. Was it expensive?

Eva: Yes, it cost $10.95, but it's beautiful and red looks good on Maria.

Mrs. Baker: Did Maria like it?

Eva: Yes, she did, but it didn't fit her. I took the blouse to her house last night. She tried it on but it was too small.

Mrs. Baker: What size blouse does she wear?

Eva: She wears a size fourteen blouse.

Mrs. Baker: What size was the red blouse?

Eva: It was size ten.

Mrs. Baker: That's too bad. Did you take it back to Grant's?

Eva: Oh no. I needed a blouse too. I tried it on and it fit me, so I'm wearing it now.

Mrs. Baker: Red looks good on you too.

Two days ago Mr. Baker went to the drugstore. He wanted to buy some medicine for his cold. He walked up to the counter. The druggist was behind the counter.

"Do you need any help?" asked the druggist.

"Yes," said Mr. Baker. "Please fill this prescription for me. How long will it take? I don't have much time."

"It'll only take a few minutes to fill this," said the druggist.

"That's good," Mr. Baker said. "I'll wait. I want some medicine for a cough too. Do you have any?"

"Yes, of course I do," said the druggist. He went to a cupboard and took out a green bottle. The label on the bottle said "Cough Syrup".

"Do you have a smaller bottle?" asked Mr. Baker. "I only want a little cough syrup."

"I'm sorry, but this is the smallest bottle. But I have some cough candy in a very small box. It's as good as the syrup."

"Is it as cheap as the syrup?" Mr. Baker asked.

"Oh, it's cheaper," said the druggist.

"Good. Give me the cough candy then. I want some nose drops too. Give me the biggest bottle of nose drops in the store."

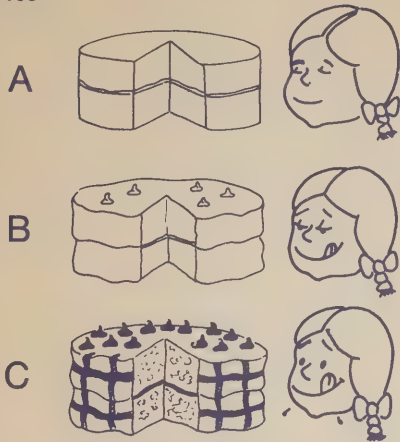

The druggist put the medicine, the cough candy and the nose drops into a bag. Mr. Baker looked at the bill. "$8.95! That's a lot of money. I only have a little money in my wallet. I only have $3.00. I'm going to write a cheque. Is that all right?"

STORY:

Last week Eva wanted to buy something for her mother's birthday. Her mother needed a sweater. Eva went to a department store. The sweaters were on the third floor. Eva took the elevator to the third floor. A saleslady came up to her and said:

- Saleslady: "Is anyone helping you?"
Eva: "No, no one is helping me."
Saleslady: "What are you looking for?"
Eva: "I want something for my mother. Maybe a sweater."
Saleslady: "What size?"
Eva: "I think size 42 will fit her."
Saleslady: "What kind of sweater do you want, a cardigan or a pullover?"
Eva: "Give me a cardigan, please."
Saleslady: "Do you want one with long sleeves or with short sleeves?"
Eva: "With long sleeves, please."
Saleslady: "Here's a pretty blue wool one. A lot of ladies like this one."
Eva: "Yes, it's pretty, but my mother doesn't wear blue."
Saleslady: "Does she wear pink? Here's a pink orlon sweater."
Eva: "Yes, pink is a better colour, and I like the silver buttons."
Saleslady: "Which one do you want, the blue wool one or the pink orlon one?"
Eva: "I think I'll take the pink orlon one. How much does it cost?"
Saleslady: "It's $19.95."
Eva: "Is it more expensive than the wool sweater?"
Saleslady: "No, it's cheaper and orlon is more practical. I think your mother will like it."

Eva bought the orlon sweater and gave it to her mother. Her mother was very happy, but the next day she went to the store and returned the sweater. She bought a short-sleeved blue wool pullover with gold buttons instead. She didn't tell Eva.

SHAW, DONALD
22 PRINCESS AVE.

D. Shaw.
Signature

This is Mr. Shaw's driver's licence.

He got it on July 3rd, after his third test.

Mr. Shaw took the driving test for the first time last May. After the test the examiner said: "I'm sorry, Mr. Shaw, you failed the test. You didn't drive well enough. You turned left at the corner of Wilson and King and the sign there says 'No left turn'. Then you drove 40 m.p.h. on King St. and the sign there says 'Speed limit 30 m.p.h.'. Then you went through 2 red lights. And you didn't park well. You parked 5 ft. from the curb."

"Can I take the test again?" asked Mr. Shaw.

"Sure," said the examiner, "but it'll cost $10.00 again."

"That's all right," said Mr. Shaw. "I'll pass it next time. I'll drive more slowly and more carefully."

Mr. Shaw came back in June and took the test for the second time. He had the same examiner. After the test the examiner said: "I'm sorry, Mr. Shaw, you failed the test again. You drove too carelessly again. This time you turned right at the corner of Wilson and Elm and the sign there says 'No right turn'. You drove too quickly. You drove 35 m.p.h. on Princess Ave. and the speed limit there is 30 m.p.h. Then you parked beside a 'No parking' sign."

"Can I take the test again?" asked Mr. Shaw.

"Sure," said the examiner, "but it'll cost $10.00 again."

"That's all right," said Mr. Shaw. "I'll pass it next time. I won't drive so quickly and so carelessly."

In July Mr. Shaw came back and took the driving test for the third time. This time the examiner said: "Congratulations, Mr. Shaw, you passed the test! You drove very well this time. You didn't go through any red lights. You didn't drive too quickly. And you parked beautifully. What happened?" Mr. Shaw smiled and said: "I went to a doctor. He told me to get a pair of glasses. Now I can read."

Look at Mr. Shaw's driver's licence and answer these questions:

1. What's Mr. Shaw's licence number?
2. Do you have a driver's licence?
What's your licence number?
3. When did Mr. Shaw get his licence?
4. When will his licence expire (end)?
5. How old is he?
6. How tall is he?
7. Where does he live?

UNIT SIX — LESSON TWO

8. You turned left the corner of Wilson and King. You drove 40 m.p.h.
King St. You went 2 red lights.
You parked 5 ft. the curb.
You parked a 'No parking' sign.
I'll pass next time. I'll drive slowly and carefully.
I'll pass next time. I won't drive quickly and carelessly.

Underline the correct word:

9. Mr. Shaw failed the test the first time because he didn't drive (good, well) enough.
Mr. Shaw failed the test the second time because he drove too (careless, carelessly, carefully).
I'll pass it next time. I'll drive (more, too, most) slowly and (so, more) carefully.
I'll pass it next time. I won't drive (most, so) quickly and (less, so) carelessly.
You parked (beautifully, beautiful).
Mr. Shaw (got, took, made) the driving test three times.
He failed the first test and the second test, but he (made, passed) the third test.
Mr. Shaw (got, has got) his driver's licence on July 3rd.
Now he (has got, got) a driver's licence.

Miss Danielson and Mr. Thompson are both librarians. They work at the Central Library on King St. Today Miss Danielson is working at the 'IN' desk and Mr. Thompson is sitting beside her, at the 'OUT' desk. Miss Danielson is very busy because a lot of people are bringing back books today. Mr. Thompson doesn't have any work because no one is taking out any books.

UNIT SIX — LESSON FOUR

Patricia and Carmen are high-school students. Yesterday their teacher asked them to write a report about Canadian magazines. They came to the library to look at all of the Canadian magazines. They're reading the magazines in the library because you can't take magazines out of the library.

Myra likes reading. She likes fiction and she reads about 10 books a week. She comes to the library about 3 times a week. This is her 3rd time this week.

Nick likes reading too, but he doesn't like fiction. He likes reading biography. He comes to the library every week to take out another book.

Sonia and Bill read a lot too, but they don't like old books. They always come to the library to look for new books. They're standing in front of the bulletin board.

Mark has been a member of the Central Library for 10 years. He knows Miss Danielson and Mr. Thompson very well because he comes to the library very often. He reads a lot of books and reads quickly too. Today he's bringing back some books.

Miss Danielson: Hello, Mark. I haven't seen you for a long time. Where have you been?

Mark: I've been at home, sick.

Miss Danielson: Oh, that's too bad.

Mark: No, it wasn't so bad. I like reading and I read a lot of books. I'm bringing them back now.

Miss Danielson: When did you take them out?

Mark: I don't remember. Wait, I'll look at my library card. I took them out on May 1st.

Miss Danielson: Then you've had them for 3 weeks. You can't keep books for more than 2 weeks, you know. You owe the library some money.

Mark: How much do I owe?

Miss Danielson: You owe 4 cents for every book for every extra day, and you had 6 books. That's 4 times 7 times 6. You owe the library $1.68.

Mark: I don't have enough money now. Can I pay next time?

Miss Danielson: Yes, that's all right. You've been a member of this library for a long time. I'll just write $1.68 on your library card.
